Dear Industry Colleagues,

Re: Constraint Management Intertrip Service (CMIS): Industry Webinar Feedback & EC5 CMIS 'Interim' Consultation

The Electricity System Operator project team have now completed their analysis of the industry feedback to the EC5 CMIS 'Interim' Consultation, and the CMIS Webinar dated 16th March 2023.

The spreadsheet labelled '2. EC5 Interim Consultation and Webinar Feedback' contains summaries of the non-confidential feedback and the ESO's response. To locate the spreadsheet, please follow this link and click on the 'EC5 Constraint Management Intertrip Service' tab.

The spreadsheet is structured as follows:

Tab Name	Explanation
1. Webinar FAQ	This tab contains the industry questions that were posed during the 16 th of March 2023 Webinar and the ESO's replies. This was originally uploaded to the ESO website on the 3 rd of March 2023 and has been included here for completeness.
2. Post Webinar Discussion	This tab contains the industry's feedback to the questions that were posed by the ESO during the 16 th of March 2023 Webinar. The ESO's replies to the feedback are also contained within this tab.
3. Consultation – Technical	This tab contains the industry's technical and commercial feedback to the EC5 CMIS 'Interim'. The ESO's replies to the feedback are also contained within this tab.
4. Consultation - Contract	This tab contains the industry's contractual feedback to the EC5 CMIS 'Interim'. The ESO's replies to the feedback are also contained within this tab.
5. Updated Indicative Timelines	This tab contains updated indicative timelines. Please note, the EC5 Industry workshops have been moved to July 2023 to allow the team to incorporate the feedback that has been provided by the industry. The arrangements of the Workshops are subject to further changes.
